Summary

I'm a motivated Computer Science and IT undergraduate with a passion for web development. I'm driven by the opportunity to use technology to solve real-world problems. Focused on building clean, user-friendly websites, I enjoy diving into new tools and frameworks to expand my skills and create effective solutions.

Skills

Nodejs | Express | Postman | React | HTML & CSS | MongoDB | MySQL | Git

Projects

- Gaming Bazar (E-commerce App): Developed a MERN stack-based e-commerce platform for purchasing gaming accessories

- Student Fee Management System: Developed a web application that enables students to pay their annual college fees online using PHP and MySQL

- Netflix Clone (Backend): Built a backend for a Netflix-like streaming service using Node.js and MongoDB, with Postman for API testing

- Twitter Clone (Backend): Developed the backend of a Twitter-like application using Node.js.
